“... well written, not only does it keep the reader interested in content but educates him/her along the way...The synchronicity of the ancient symbol of the Circle of Life’ is beyond coincidence and leaves one as a believer of the possibility of ‘Through Grief to Understanding’.”

Michelle Lusson, DD. Author of Creative Wellness and Founder Emeritus of the Community Chapel for Wholistic Healing (CCWH).

Clairaudient Joanne Aaronson gives a personal and intimate portrayal of the difficult challenges and pain surrounding the death of a loving father and husband. How the author and her family cope with that passing is the subject of this heartfelt and uplifting story, a compelling confirmation that death, representing the spirit's release from its temporary space-time constraints, is but a physical illusion.

T. Lee Baumann, author of God at the Speed of Light: The Melding of Science and Spirituality, Window to God, The Akashic Light: Religion's Religion's Common Thread, and The Seagu11 Project: a black hole science adventure to the center of our galaxy
